This is a charming story about two cats. A big black cat and a small black cat. The two cats discuss their thoughts and actions about the fat rat.

This is a book of rhyming words, but it is not only a book of simple words that rhyme but also clear colourful illustrations in a friendly format.

This beginner reader's e-book is written mainly for children up to 4 years old. It is suitable for beginner readers and English second language readers.

The clear illustrations are brought to life through the rhyming words that complete the story and help the children figure out the words.

Children can use this book to learn the rhyming words ending in -at.

At, cat, mat, rat and more, are words in this book that are fun to read and further help the children maintain their focus, as they read through the story.

The story is suitable to be read out loud to pre-schoolers, first and second language readers or as an independent read for willing beginner readers.

It is a language rhyming story that is lots of fun. Children enjoy the wonderful rhyming words and easily learn them. In fact, they may not even notice they are learning to read!

Parents: At the end of the book, the cats and the rat are friends.

"Friends" an important topic for children in this age group. Ask your child to tell you about his or her friends.

Thank you for downloading this e-book.

Enjoy the reading-rhyming experience.

What greater gift than the love of a cat? - Charles Dickens

The clever cat eats cheese and breathes down rat holes with baited breath. - W. C. Fields
