Courtship and Dating: So What's the Difference? Dennis Gundersen

Considered by many the most sensible and Biblical book on courtship in print. Chapters on the right role of parents in their children's choices; on relationships for the purpose of service rather than mere entertainment; on guarded moral protection and accountability rather than total freedom; on the benefits of waiting for one partner rather than being a "serial dater". And much more. Includes these supplemental chapters: * Martin Luther: On Parents and Their Children's Marriages * Mary Mohler: Modeling Modesty * Tamika Burns: Modesty, the Best Policy * Kim Shay: Some Observations on Courtship * Martin Bucer: Marriage Without the Consent of Parents "When someone asks me about materials on courtship, my first recommendation is Dennis Gundersen's. It is a well-reasoned and well-balanced approach which gets the reader thinking in all the right directions." -- Harvey Bluedorn, Trivium Pursuit
