When you are happy, laughing and enjoying everything life has to offer it's a lot easier to see most things in a positive way. Pleased with where you are in life, enjoying the company of friends, and intimacy with that special person couldn't be better. The soft touch of lips, passion in a touch, and making love leaves an impression for days. The like a blink of an eye, you're sitting there, staring at the floor or out a nearby window....why? A job loss, separation or divorce, or maybe even death in the family or kids have grown and leave home. Something has changed... Feelings have changed ... You begin to hear that little voice in your head, I know I should love him/her, why don't I feel anything? You struggle to find focus, thoughts are scrambled, you feel empty, and the day to day activities seem nearly impossible ...What now? Where do you turn? With a background in human behavior and more than fifteen years of helping others with life struggles both online and on a personal basis, the author shares not only his knowledge, but, personal experiences with many of life's crisis's. A single father raising two boys alone, having gone through divorce, depression, and having had to guide himself out of some of the worst emotional traumas a person can encounter, he hopes this book, sharing the struggles, and recoveries, will aid many in their quest to a happy and balanced life once again.
