KRLA Weekly Music Charts: The Pacesetting Years: 1959-1964 Frank W. Hoffmann

In the late 1950s and early 1960s, KRLA outpaced all other Los Angeles radio stations within the lucrative Top 40 market. Its music charts - reproduced here from the outset in mid-1959 through 1964 - provide a fascinating glimpse into the southern California popular culture from Elvis Presley to the Beatles. Also includes a concise historical survey of the radio station Like the other radio charts titles, my goal was to provide a convenient chronological compilation of weekly surveys with corrections of the considerable errors found in both the original sources and in translation to online sites. These radio charts – which exist in the public domain – can be found in a multitude of sources, including original published sheets distributed via retail outlets, mail inquiries, etc., notation of on-air broadcasts, back issues of area newspapers (where stations are located) and music trade periodicals, specialized reference books, and websites interested in historical documentation, most notably, Oldiesloun, musicradio77, and ARSA. I employed multiple sources in the compilation of each radio chart volume in order to provide the most accurate data possible..
