Braden Ryland has hidden his pain and resentment of being given away as a toddler. When his twin brother Mark searches for their biological father, angry words are spoken—the last between them before Mark is critically injured in a motorcycle accident. Regrets lay heavily on Braden's shoulders, including falling in love with his brother's girlfriend. He needs Mark to awaken from a coma to seek forgiveness.

As Christmas approaches, Braden prays for a miracle. God delivers, but in an unexpected way.
