American Popular Music : Readings from the Popular Press : the Age of Rock (Hardback) - Common

By (author) Timothy E Scheurer

Beginning with the emergence of commercial American music in the nineteenth century, Volume 1 includes essays on the major performers, composers, media, and movements that shaped our musical culture before rock and roll. Articles explore the theoretical dimensions of popular music studies; the music of the nineteenth century; and the role of black Americans in the evolution of popular music.
