Introduction

Intro This is the thirteenth volume in the Daily Gospel series, and it contains Daily Gospel Reflections. The purpose of this series is to introduce timely topics from the Gospel, which integrate critical values we face in the digital age. The purpose of this series is to introduce appropriate topics from the Gospel, which incorporate critical values we face in the digital age. The Daily Gospel series follows the Catholic Church's liturgical calendar and seeks to offer small portions of the Gospel on a daily basis. The Daily Gospel has been at the heart of the Catholic Church for many centuries, but we have now entered a digital age. This has not changed the desire the faithful have for listening to the Gospel, but only the medium by which they find the word of God and apply it to their lives. This series of reflections dedicated to the Daily Gospel as given to us by the Catholic Church by the Bishops is hoped to be another means that the faithful can retrieve the Gospel thru various electronic media: Kindle, iPhone, tablets, and iPad.

Today our reflection is on Matt. 5:43-48, in which Jesus teaches his disciples about the love of God and the love of our enemies. We love God when we become as perfect as Our Heavenly Father and Jesus gives us the example. We love our enemies when we do good to those who harm us.

Love your enemies

“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father, for he makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust. (Matt. 5:43-45)

Jesus begins to perfect the teaching that says to love our neighbor and hate our enemy, but Jesus turns things around and extends our charity even further by loving those who persecute us and do us harm. The reason Jesus gives is because this kind of response to our enemies makes us true children of our Heavenly Father. After all, Our Heavenly Father gives to all alike, the good and the bad, day in and out, century after century, never failing to exercise his charity. He never asks for anything in return. We, on the other hand, demand others to treat us well and to honor us at every turn of the road. Jesus says that kind of behavior doesn't make us children of God as much as loving our persecutors and enemies. Jesus uses the phrase that should be our motto in Christian action: make your sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and unjust.
