Death Commends Not All Robert J. Gregg

John and Bill decide to stop the world and get off. They discover Europe and are formed by the beauty, the nostalgia, and the melodrama of their life-changing voyage. Both tumultuously find success, John as a writer in Italy and Bill as a painter in Germany – and soon find themselves transfixed in the fine art of passion. All paths converge on the bohemian labyrinth of Berlin, where their rivalry for the love of the same woman brings their journeys to a dramatic head. Told from an array of voices, DEATH COMMENDS NOT ALL is a vivid portmanteau of living and loving sure to please those who treat every new novel as a passage to tantalizing new horizons.
