A self-generating car, a butterfly garden, a murder, a shooting, an inventor missing, a love affair but no one is sure with whom. A So-Cal mystery full of danger, hints of espionage, romance, in this second Samantha Howe book. Samantha moves to Palm Springs as a P.I. and signs on with the detective firm of Tobias Green and she gets her first big case. It takes place all over--Palm Springs, Pasadena, L.A., Laguna, Del Mar. Samantha is an organic gardener with a small urban farm of her own where she works between cases, a place to ponder clues and garden under the stars. In this book, contradictions abound and troubles keep coming at Samantha. She follows the clues to the end. The plot thickens and some of the characters think it may never be solved as one crime muddies the solution of another. Common clues bring the mystery to light as the detective finds her way.
