VeteranSpeak: An Introduction to the Language of Veterans' is the beginning of a larger conversation about reintegrating our military families into the fabric of our communities. This workbook is provided as a supplement to the text and our course offerings. Understanding these issues is critical for moving our nation forward. Reintegration of our nation's heroes is a priority because we need all of our citizens pulling together in the same direction - if we are to meet the challenges of the 21st Century. In order to expand our knowledge, we will explore the structural frames of military life and non-military life to develop a stronger shared awareness of both. Expanding awareness is essential for employers and employees seeking to appreciate veterans who share the workplace. This workbook is offered to assist employers, employees, peers, and supporters to better understand the background, history, and benefits of hiring veterans for the modern workplace. We hope that this tool yields your team the means to accomplish exponentially more successful ends. America is always strongest when we learn together, work together, and help each other build our dreams.
