The Sacred Walk Fr. Cedric Pisegna CP

Discipleship in a nutshell is walking with and following Jesus. The word “disciple” means “learner.” When we spend time with Jesus, we learn from him and can live the way he lived. How did Jesus walk? Jesus spent major time nurturing his relationship with God. He grew in obedience and character. He developed over time and realized his potential. He reached out to people and made a difference that still impacts multitudes today.

This book will help you to:

- Forget what lies behind and press forward
- Stay positive in adversity and challenges
- Develop your passion for God
- Pray more effectively
- Embrace a lifestyle of surrender to God
- Discover the source of passion
- Fall in love with God
- Realize your potential
- Face your fears
- Grow in every area of your life

The notion of walking implies movement and progression. It is not just the destination, but the journey that forges character and facilitates our growth. This book will inspire, encourage, and teach you how to walk with God every day. Move forward and live with passion!
