Thriller: Death Of Darkness

Kevin Smith is unlike your average American. Being the son of a millionaire, he was spoilt as a child, and grew up to turn into one of the most prolific killers ever. He ends up walking in on his father indulging in BDSM and is left with a lasting impression. Having taken inspiration from his childhood favorite, count Dracula, Kevin ends up not just killing his victims, but also bathes in their blood. He is adept at using all types of torture devices including the infamous iron maiden.

Having been exposed to a life of crime and drugs right from a young age, he is unable to cope with the murder of his cousin, Drake, at the hands of a prolific young drug trafficker. But he takes to the idea of killing people and goes on a manic rampage that lasts several years.

Will he avenge his cousin brother? Will he be caught by the police, and will justice be brought to the hundreds of innocent lives that were tormented and killed by Kevin? Well, the answer lies in this book!

A definite page-turner, this book on the life and crime of an American millionaire is sure to leave you on the edge of your seat.
