Dance with Death (The Song of Destiny Book 2) J.S. Martin

Twenty years have gone by since five young and unheralded heroes freed their land from the threat of the Nemesis of the Worlds. Peace now seems a tangible reality in the Kingdoms of the Central Lands and the entire Talya peninsula, but history teaches us that times of peace always alternate with periods of war, that some sort of evil is always lying in wait, ready to disrupt the life of the righteous. If this evil was only a vacuous shadow, something imperceptible and fleeting, could it really hurt mankind?... What if it was not just a simple shadow, but was instead the shadow of an obscure and vindictive God, if it was The Shadow of Death! Two orphans raised by a priest in a small village, a street kid who thinks only of his own interest, a lazy and cowardly magician and a warrior from the north with a mysterious past... will they somehow be able to halt an evil such as this?
