Frank Norris - The Octopus, & The Pit Frank Norris

Two classics combined in one volume.

This edition is optimized for the Kindle.

A frequent theme of Norris' work is the idea of civilized man overcoming brute tendencies. His novel McTeague is about a dentist during the early 1900's in San Francisco. It was filmed as Greed by Erich von Stroheim in 1924. He began a three book series called "The Epic of Wheat trilogy." However, the planned third book, titled Wolf, was never written. The first book, The Octopus: A Story of California, is about a conflict between wheat growers and a railway company. The second book, The Pit, is about wheat speculation and the Chicago Board of Trade.
