Rose Chase Smith is bold enough to tell it like it is, with no holds barred! "She's Got Game" hits Steve Harvey's book/movie "Act Like A Lady, Think Like A Man" head on! It is real talk for grown folks, gut busting humor, and a woman's point of view from a "game perspective." She has never had a problem speaking her mind, and her book is no exception.

She uncovers the truth about what women "game changers" really think, want and get. She enlightens and empowers women who appear clueless. And, she informs and educates men on how to handle love, relationships, intimacy, commitment and never blinks an eye.

She sets the record straight by proving some women have been acting like ladies and thinking like men since the beginning of time. Since men are the superior athletes, she proves to them and the world that women have game too. After reading her book, you will either cheer for her, or take your ball and go home. Either way, the next time you step on the field, you have no choice but to respect her. Because, she's got game...
