Claes Oldenburg (October Files)

Claes Oldenburg (born in 1929) is largely known today as a pop art sculptor. Oldenburg himself described his formless canvas and vinyl soft sculptures--gigantic hamburgers and ice cream cones, cushiony toilets and typewriters--as "objects that elude definition." This collection of writings revisits not only Oldenburg's soft objects from the early to mid 1960s but also his pioneering installations The Street (1960) and The Store (1961--1962) and his often overlooked multimedia performances. As the artist translated his ideas and beliefs into various media and formats, his work drew on a range of styles and schools, including abstract expressionism, Happenings, pop art, minimalism, and postminimalism. Perhaps because of their refusal to be classified, these artworks are as contemporary today as they were when they were created between 1960 and 1965.

This collection serves both as a summation of early critical thinking on Oldenburg's art and a starting point for consideration of the artist as a forerunner of current art trends of stylelessness and intermediality. It includes both contemporary criticism and more recent scholarly reassessments, interviews with the artist, and Oldenburg's own unpublished manifesto on the Ray Gun Theater (the artist's name for his performance series in the back of The Store).

As a scholar exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
