What one person can accomplish on their own can be more easily accomplished with a team. Those individuals who attempt to do things by themselves often come to the realization that if they had a team they could go so much further and do so much more. Many great business owners, pastors, and leaders of all kinds started off with a vision and they quickly began to understand that they had the individuals around them that could help turn their vision into a fulfilled mission. A mission cannot be fulfilled unless a team is built on a solid foundation, a clear mission, limited distractions, and a leader who is motivated. It Takes A Team outlines those very things, and more, using biblical strategies and everyday concepts to ensure success. This book will bless you and help you to realize that no matter the mission, It Takes A Team!
