Letters and Papers from Prison Dietrich Bonhoeffer

From the back cover: When Dietrich Bonhoeffer was executed on a Nazi gallows on April 9, 1945, the world lost more than a brilliant theological mind. His last letters and papers - smuggled from prison and preserved in this volume - show Bonhoeffer to be a human being of extraordinary humility and sweetness of character, a man of courage sustained by Christian faith. The son of a famous German psychiatrist, he was recognized as an accomplished scholar in his early twenties. During the years of Hitler's ascendancy, he taught at Barcelona, New York, Berlin, and London. He was safe from war-torn Europe in 1939 (on an American lecture tour) but his Diary records his decision to return to Germany to minister his own people. Eventually his activities and those of his friends in the Resistance movement resulted in his arrest by the Nazis in April, 1943. His letters enable us to reconstruct the picture of life in a prison cell as it was lived by a man of extraordinary sensitivity. He was taken away to be hanged just after conducting a Sunday worship service for his fellow prisoners. He died at the age of thirty-nine. Cover design by Muriel Nasser
